[XXth Year.] THURSDAY, June 14, 1764. [No. 997.]

LONDON, April 3.

LORD Clive having repeatedly been requested by the Proprietors of the East-India Stock, to take upon him the Direction of their Affairs in Bengal, and to proceed thither, has refused accepting that Service: His Reason therefor is, that a Difference is subsisting between him and Mr. Sullivan, the present Deputy-Chairman of the Company: Whereupon a Reconciliation was proposed; but on the 28th of March, Lord Clive sent a final Answer to the following Purport, that having considered in the coolest Manner, and without Prejudice, that he can place no Confidence in one, who in his Opinion, has acted, and does continue to act, upon Principles diametrically opposite to the true Interest of the India Company; That, upon the whole, in Case the Proprietors think it for their Advantage that Mr. Sullivan should remain at the Head of the Direction, he could not accept the Service: But in Case the Proprietors should not think it necessary to continue Mr. Sullivan in such Authority, he was willing and ready to accept their Service, even supposing the next Advice should pronounce their Affairs in Bengal, to be in as desperate a Condition as ever they were? That should a Direction be settled with whom he could possibly co-operate, every Thing will be easily adjusted, since he had no interested Views in going abroad.

Sunday the Purser of the Royal George, Capt. Scott, came to the India House with the agreeable News of the above Ship being arrived safe at Plymouth from Bengal. She sailed from thence the 12th of October, and brings Advice, that all Things there were in a perfect State of Tranquility; that the outward bound Ships were all arrived, and that the Earl of Effingham sailed five Days before the Royal George, and is therefore hourly expected.

It is expected that Admiral Cornish is at the Cape by this Time, as he sailed from Bengal the Beginning of February.

East-India House, April 4.

By the Company's Ship Royal George, which arrived at Spithead from Bengal on the 1st Inst. the Court of Directors have received Letters from that Presidency to the following Purport: That the Disputes between the Company's Servants there and the reigning Nabob, Cossim Aly Cawn, had been productive of such Animosities and Jealousies on the Part of the latter, that it was judged highly necessary to use every Means to allay them. For this Purpose Messr. Amyatt and Hay, two Gentlemen of the Council, were deputed to wait upon the Nabob with Instructions to endeavour to adjust the Differences in an amicable Manner. They accordingly arrived at Mongheer, the Place of his Residence, on the 12th of May, and had many Conferences with him, in which he evidently shewed a great Averseness to an Accommodation upon the Terms offered to him. About this Time a Supply of 500 Stand of Arms, going to Patna, was stopped by the Nabob's Officers, and other Acts of Hostility were committed; and Affairs being come to an Extremity, a War with Cossim Aly was unavoidable, Messieurs Amyatt and Hay were recalled, and Measures were taken at the Presidency, to carry it on in the most effectual Manner. Mr. Amyatt having taken Leave of the Nabob the Twenty-fourth of June, and received the usual Passports, he set out in Boats for Calcutta, accompanied with Messr. Amphlet, Wollaston and Hutchinson; Lieutenants Jones, Gordon, and Cooper; and Doctor Crooke, (Messr. Hay and Gulston remaining with the Nabob as Hostages.) As the Boats were passing the City of Moorshedabad, they were attacked the 3d of July by a Number of Troops, assembled for that Purpose, on both Sides the River, and some of the Gentlemen were killed in the Boats. Mr. Amyatt immediately landed with a few Seapoys, which he forbid to fire, and endeavoured to make the Enemy's Troops understand that he was furnished with the Nabob's Passports, and had no Design of committing any Hostilities; but the Enemy's Horse advancing, some of the Seapoys fired, notwithstanding Mr. Amyatt's Orders; and a great Confusion ensuing, that Gentleman, and most of the small Party who were with him, were cut to Pieces.

By the said Letters it further appears, that Mr. Ellis and his Council at Patna, having with the Approbation of Capt. Carstairs, agreed to attack that City early in the Morning of the 25th of June, it was accordingly executed and carried; they were in entire Possession of that City for four Hours, the Mooriish Governor and most of his People having fled as far as Cutwa; that he there came to a Resolution to return and attempt to regain the City, and having got in at the Water side Gate of the Fort, he succeeded in dispossessing our Troops, owing to the Seapoys and Europeans being mostly dispersed in plundering: That upon their retiring into the Factory, on account of the Dispiritedness of the Men, and a great Desertion among the Seapoys, it was found impracticable to make any Stand there; and a Resolution was therefore taken to proceed to Sujah Dowlas's Country; that they accordingly crossed the River the 26th in the Evening, and met with no Obstruction until they passed Churpa; that then they were attacked on the 30th by the Phousdar, with about 2000 Men, whom they easily routed; but he being that Evening joined from Budgepore with four or five Hundred Seapoys, and five or six Field-Pieces, he attacked the Party on the next Evening, the 1st of July, and entirely routed them, the Europeans having quitted their Ranks at the first Onset; that in the whole there were about fifty Europeans killed, and about 8 or 9 Officers, amongst the last Captain Carstairs, who was killed by a Cannon Ball in the Morning of the 1st; that on the second Mr. Ellis, with the Officers and private Men, were taken Prisoners, and by the last Advices were all at Mongheer, excepting Capt. Wilson, Ensigns Mackay and Armstrong, Mr. Anderson, Surgeon, and Mr. Peter Campbell, who then remained Prisoners at Patna.

Upon these and other Acts of Hostility against several of the Company's Settlements committed by Cossim Aly, it was determined to declare War against him, and to restore the former Nabob, Meer Jaffier, to the Subahship, upon his entering into a new Treaty with the Company. War was accordingly declared, and an advantageous Treaty was concluded, the most material Articles whereof are a Confirmation of his former Treaty, and also of the Provinces of Burdwan, Nidnapoor, and Chittagon, granted by the late Nabob Cossim Aly, engaging to give thirty Lacks of Rupees to defray the Expences and Loss accruing to the Company from the War, and engaging also to reimburse the Amount of private Persons Losses.

Meer Jaffier set out a few Days after to join the Army under Major Adams, which was then on its March towards Moorshedabad. The first Action which happened, was on the 6th of July, opposite to Cutwa, on the Cossimbuzar Side of the River. The Major having crossed the Army the Night before, in the Morning came up with a large Body of the Enemy's Troops, who were strongly posted to oppose his Progress to the City; and having attacked them, they were routed, after a small Resistance, and with an inconsiderable Loss on our Side. A detached Party, under the Command of Capt. Long, at the same Time possessed themselves of the Fort of Cutwa, on the other Side of the River; and all the Artillery they had there, as well as what they had brought into the Field, fell into our Hands. In this Action Mahomed Tuckey Cawn, who, it is said, commanded the Attack on Mr. Amyatt's Party, was mortally wounded, and died a few Days after.

The good Effects of this Success were displayed in the easy Conquest that followed of the City of Moorshedabad, which the Army entered with a trifling Opposition the 24th at Night. Here the Major established and proclaimed the Nabob Meer Jaffier in due Form, and halted some Days to refresh the Army.

On the 28th of July, the Major continued his March towards Mongheer; and on the 2d of August, having arrived near a Place called Sooty, at the Head of the Cossimbuzar River, a very obstinate Engagement ensued with a numerous Army of the Enemy's best Troops and Artillery, who there occupied a very strong and advantageous Post. The Stand that they made was resolute and uncommon for Troops of this Country, having closely engaged our Forces for Four Hours; however, by the Intrepidity and good Conduct of Major Adams, and the remarkable Bravery of the Officers and Men, the Enemy sustained a total Defeat. The Loss on our Side was not so considerable as might have been expected from so severe an Action, consisting only of Six Officers and Forty Europeans, and 222 Seapoys and Black Horse, killed and wounded. On the Side of the Enemy, a great Number of Men were killed and wounded, 23 Pieces of Cannon, and about 150 Boats laden with military and other Stores taken; amongst these last were found all the Artillery and most of the Patna Detachment's Stores; and within some Days after the Action, between 60 and 70 of the Men who were taken Prisoners at Patna, and had been engaged by foul Means and fair to serve the Enemy's Guns, returned to their Colours.

Immediately after this Battle the Major advanced with the Army near to Rajamaul; about 3 or 4 Miles from which Place the Enemy had thrown up a strong Entrenchment from the Hills to the River, and for the forcing of which it was judged most proper for insuring the Safety of the Troops to carry on regular Approaches. Every Thing having been accordingly prepared, the Works were begun upon the 29th of August, and continued till the 5th of September, when the Major resolved upon an Assault, which was executed with little Loss, and their whole Works fell into our Possession that Morning. This Success we have great Reason to believe, will be decisive of the Fate of the War, as the Enemy seemed to repose their chief Confidence in the Strength of these Works, and now by the Loss of them are deprived of all Supplies of Provision from the Province of Bengal, which is entirely secured to us.

Major Adams, in his Letters, where he gives an Account of his several Engagements with the Enemy, has given just Praises to Major Carnac, Major Knox, and other Officers who have distinguished themselves, as well as to the Officers and Troops in general for their gallant Behaviour. To Major Carnac he ascribes particular Merit, for the vigorous Attack which he led against the main Body of the Enemy in the general Action of the 2d of August, and which made the first Impression, contributing thereby in great Measure to the Victory we had obtained. The same Justice is due to Major Adams, which he has done to the Officers and Troops under his Command, and the highest Praise is due to him from the Company for his good Conduct in this Campaign, which has been attended with extraordinary Difficulties and Fatigues, on Account of the rainy Season and the Badness of the Roads; and in which, by his Ability in forming the Plans of Attack in such a Manner to take every Advantage the Situation of the Enemy admitted, he has insured the Success of his Operations with the smallest Loss of Men possible; and to which most valuable Qualification, he adds a Coolness, and Intrepidity unshaken in the midst of Action.

Governor Vansittart writes to the Directors of the East-India Company, that as the Friends of the Gentlemen Prisoners with the late Nabob Cossim Aly, would be anxious to have a certain Account of them, he transmitted the Copy of a Letter to Major Adams, from Messr. Ellis and Hay, dated at Patna the 4th of October last, mentioning, that the Number of Prisoners was 40, who were taking Measures for the Purchase of their Deliverance. On the Major's nearer Approach towards Patna, that Officer was also endeavouring to effect so desirable an Event. The Governor adds, as Messr. Ellis and Hay take Notice of the Death of Capt. Turner only, it was presumed all the rest were well.

Governor Vansittart afterwards advised the Reduction of Mongheer, on the 11th of October, by the Major, without the Loss of one Man before the Town.

Governor Vansittart further acquaints the Court of Directors, in a Letter dated the 8th of October 1763, That if the War should not be brought to a successful End, he will stay in Bengal the ensuing following

leading Year at all Risks; although it is the Opinion of the Physicians, he is very unfit to be going through another hot Season; but if the Trouble should be so far quieted, that he can leave the Company's Possessions in Safety, he hopes to be in London about September next.

The Court of Directors having a due Sense of the gallant Behaviour and great Services of Major Carnac, as noticed in Major Adams's Advices, have unanimously agreed to restore to him the Command of the Company's Forces in Bengal.

April 5. This Day his Majesty went in State to the House of Peers, and gave the Royal Assent to the following Bills, viz.

The Bill for granting to his Majesty a certain Sum out of the sinking Fund, for the Service of the present Year.

The Bill for altering the Duties on Beaver Skins.

The Bill for granting certain Duties on Goods in the British Colonies, and to make perpetual an Act for encouraging the Trade to the Sugar Colonies.

And to several other Bills to repair Roads, enclose Lands, &c. &c.

NEW-YORK, June 4.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated March 24.

"Yesterday the House of Commons finished their Debates on the Bill depending in Parliament for taxing America, conformable to their Resolutions of the 10th Instant. Inclosed are the Votes of said Day, and also those of the 22d and 23d Instant, by which appears the Determinations of the Committee (of the whole House) thereupon.

The Well-wishers to America have used their utmost Endeavours to lessen the Taxes first proposed; in which they have, in some Measure, happily succeeded, and in other Respects fallen far short of what they attempted; particularly, 1st, By not being able to reduce the Duty of One Pound Two Shillings on foreign white Sugars, or to obtain a Drawback on them, when re-exported from the Colonies.

2dly, Not being able to reduce the Duty of 3d per Gallon on Melasses, to 2d per Gallon, though the House divided thereon.

Lastly, Not being able (as yet) to obtain a Liberty of importing directly, Wine, Fruit and Oil from Spain and Portugal. As it now stands, Wine must come to England, and pay Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Ton Duty, and Ten Shillings more when imported into America.

On the other Hand, the 18th Resolution, by which all German Linens, and East-India Callicoes, both white and printed (which include Muslins also) were to be advanced (by the Drawbacks being suspended) to 20 at 43 per Cent.

This was the Debate of Yesterday, from the Sitting of the House till Midnight; and at which all the Americans in and about this City attended, and several were examined at the Bar.

The principal Arguments of the Opposition to that Part of the Bill's passing, was obliged to be founded on the Practicability of the Americans supplying themselves from Germany, St. Eustatia, &c. notwithstanding the Government might take every Measure in their Power by Cutters and Custom House Officers, to prevent it; and if that could be prevented, the Americans would be under the Necessity of manufacturing themselves. These two Points were so fully proved by Witnesses at the Bar, that the House was unanimously of Opinion, to confirm so far of the 17th and 18th Resolutions, as will amount to a Duty of 3 and a Half per Cent. on foreign Linens exported from hence after the 10th of May, 1764; and 5 per Cent. on Muslins and Callicoes, white or printed, exported from hence after the 1st of March, 1765; therefore it will be necessary to transmit your Orders for the latter, as soon after the Receipt of this as possible, to avoid the said 5 per Cent. Duty; as to Linens, the short Time fixed by the Act prevents it.

It may not be improper to observe, that the Ministry, as well as the whole House, appear determined, at any Expence or Trouble, to attempt to put a Stop to illicit Trade, and to give every Encouragement to divert the Americans from manufacturing. These two Points will be most certainly attended to with the utmost Vigilance; and the former should be particularly regarded by the Merchants in America.

The Act for the Bounty of Eight Pounds per Ton on Hemp, is now passing the House, and shall be forwarded as soon as printed.

The 15th Resolution relating to the Stamp Duty, will certainly pass next Sessions, unless the Americans offer a more certain Duty. Had not WILLIAM ALLEN, Esq; been here, and indefatigable in opposing it, and happily having made Acquaintance with the first Personages in the Kingdom, and the greatest Part of the House of Commons, it would inevitably have passed this Sessions. All the Well-wishers to America are of Opinion, that as the Tax in itself is an equitable one, and the least injurious that can be proposed, the several Assemblies should signify their Assent and Desire to that Tax, under the present Exigencies of the State, and the Necessity of the Case, by which they avoid every Appearance of an Infringement of their Liberty, and shew their Inclination to pay that Obedience to a British Parliament, which has the Power to make every Part of its Dominions submit to such Laws as they may think proper to enact; by this Means they will prevent a Precedent from Internal Taxes being imposed without their Consent, which will inevitably be the Case next Session, if they withhold their Assent to the Stamp Tax."

We hear that on Wednesday last an Anchor of 1400 and a Half, made at Mr. Hawxhurst's Sterling Iron Works, was delivered in this City, for one of His Majesty's Sloops here. The Anchor was seen by several Merchants and Masters of Ships, and much liked, and is supposed to be the largest that was ever made in this Government. It is hoped the Merchants in these Colonies will encourage the Improvement of this valuable Manufactory, seeing it is arrived to so considerable a Perfection.

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.

By a Person from Berks County we are informed, that the Woman shot through the Neck by a Party of four Indians (as mentioned in our last) was since dead: That the two Children missing from Jacob Baker's, were found on the Blue Mountain, by one of our Parties, killed and scalped: That two young Men had been since murdered by the Enemy: And that the Number killed, on the Thirtieth of last Month, in that County, amounted to Nine.

Our Advices from Carlisle, of the 31st ult. are, that Information had been received there from Fort Loudoun, of one Brown being lately killed at the Mouth of Aughwick by the Indians, and his Sister made Prisoner by them: That Captain Bluddy, with a small Party of Volunteers, having been ranging in the Great Cove, heard the Hallowing of a Number of the Enemy, supposed to be about Twenty; upon which he alarmed the Inhabitants, a great many of whom, it is said, were repairing to the Forts.—That a Man from Augusta County, in Virginia, advised, that three Persons had lately been killed near Staunton, in that County, by the Indians: And that it was reported there was a considerable Number of them between Bedford and Fort Cumberland.

ANNAPOLIS, June 14.

We are informed by the Virginia Rider, That an Express came last Thursday to Col. Fairfax, from Winchester, with an Account, that on the Friday before, Six or Seven Families were cut off by the Indians at Cedar-Creek, which he says is not above 7 or 8 Miles from that Town: And a Man driving a Carriage loaded with Liquors and some Dry Goods, from Alexandria, for the South Branch, having a Negro Lad with him, was kill'd by the Enemy, and the Lad taken Prisoner. There was a Draught made out of the Militia at Camiron last Saturday, to go to the Frontier; and another larger Draught was to be made on Tuesday last from a General Muster, for the same Purpose.

We mentioned in our last, that Capt. Christie, in the Lion, for London, had had a bad Passage: The following is part of a Letter from a Gentleman who went Passenger, which will give an Idea of their Distress: "LONDON, March 29, 1764.

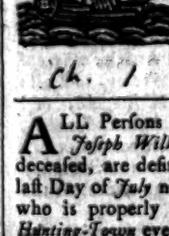
"—We met with a very hard Gale of Wind "about 150 Leagues off Cape Henry, which forced us to cut away our Main and Mizen-Masts; "had all our Water on Deck, Provision, Binnacle, and Two Hands, wash'd over board; our "Steerage Hatch stove down with a Sea, and our "Tiller broke in the Rudder Head, with several "other Losses."

Last Thursday Noon, one Balser Wall, a German, Butcher, of this Place, having a Horse who had slipp'd his Shoulder, not knowing how to swim himself, very imprudently went into the River from a Point in this Town to swim him as long as he could swim, in order to cure him: Poor Man, he compleated both; being very unhappily Drowned, with his Horse, a few Yards from the Shore. And on Saturday his Body was found, and Decently Interr'd.



For BARBADOS,

THE Brigantine Free-Mason, now lying at ANNAPOLIS, a prime Sailer, with good Accommodations for Passengers, will sail in a Fortnight. For Freight or Passage, apply to
